CERTIFIED HEALTH CARE FACILITY MANAGER (CHFM) EXAM REVIEW COURSE

WEDNESDAY, MAY 15, 2024

CHFM status provides both internal and external rewards. CHFMs enjoy the pride of recognition of being among the elite in a critical field of healthcare. And CHFM is a premier credential based on a sound assessment that provides distinction in an increasingly competitive marketplace.

The Alabama Society for Healthcare Engineering (AlaSHE) will host a one-day Certified Healthcare Facility Management (CHFM) Exam Review Course on Wednesday May 15 from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. CST. This program provides the tools to help prepare you to take the CHFM examination. Through a combination of lecture, CHFM formatted practice test questions, and study materials, you will gain confidence in the five key competency areas of the CHFM exam, learn what resources you need to review, and how to take a computer-based exam.

The preparatory class will be conducted by York Chan, CHFM, CHC, SASHE, who has amassed 35 years of progressive management experience in health facility operations. Prior to retirement, he was the administrator of facilities for Advocate Health Care, overseeing facility operations for the system of 12 acute care hospitals in Illinois. He served as a Board member of the American Society for Health Care Engineering (ASHE) from 2008 through 2012. York is a Certified Healthcare Facilities Manager as well as a Certified Healthcare Constructor. York has served as faculty for Joint Commission Resources and taught the "Environment of Care Base Camp" and "Exploring the Life Safety Chapter" programs. He has conducted custom education sessions for the Department of Defense, Veterans Administration and numerous health care organizations throughout the U.S. He has also served as faculty for the Joint Commission Satellite Network (JCSN) and the Joint Commission Resources Quality and Safety Network teaching internet, satellite and web-based environment of care programs.
